

SPIRIT OF JOY

SUNDAY SANCTUARY

Joy comes from many sources: the joy of serving others, our connection to Divinity, the moments we spend in silent awe beside a river in the forest, the spark of realizing a long-held dream. Joy can be sacred, quiet, or loud. And it grows when we share it.

What would it feel like to start each week filled with joy, real joy, the kind that bubbles up from deep within and flows outward into every part of your life?

Spirit of Joy Sunday Sanctuary is a weekly gathering of beautiful souls, people like you, coming together to support one another, our community, our nation, and our planet. Here, we reclaim the sacred in everyday life. We honor the divine both within and beyond, and we choose to increase our joy—not by chasing it, but by creating space for it to bloom.

Come as you are. Leave with your heart a little fuller. This is sanctuary. This is joy.
